THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR. NO. 1.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 2, 1914.

PRICE, $1.00 A YEAR

Auditor Corrects Many Mistakes.

Errors in the Greene County tax duplicate, compiled during the term of the outgoing County Auditor, Walter A. Dorn, amounting to $114,490, which would have caused the county a loss of $5,854.01 in taxes, are shown in the report filed Monday morning by County Auditor Amos Paulkner with the Board of County Commissioners and with State Auditor Donahay. The report was made by Auditor Paulkner at the conclusion of four weeks' strenuous labor in his office, spent in correcting the tax duplicate which was turned back into the Auditor's office by County Treasurer McVey after the collector of taxes had begun. Only a few persons had paid their taxes when it was discovered that the tax duplicate was radically wrong and after a conference between the County Commissioners, County Auditor and County Treasurer it was decided to stop the collection of taxes until the duplicate could be checked up. This work was immediately begun by Auditor Paulkner, assisted by his deputies and Mr. George Kendall, clerk of the County Commissioners, and it was not completed until the latter part of last week. Every township in the county was checked, but the greatest errors were made in Xenia city, where property valued at $108,470, was left off the duplicate. The taxes on this property are $17,449. That such a large amount of property was left off the duplicate in Xenia city was due to the fact that practically none of the additions made to the duplicate by the board of review were headed by the name of the owner. One of the most valuable properties left off the duplicate in Xenia city was one owned by H. E. Schmidt and valued at $15,000. Among other things left off the duplicate was the new building constructed on West Church street by Mr. Bradstreet, the grocer, and a new building constructed by Dice Bros. in the western part of the city. Both of these had been ordered on the duplicate by the Board of Review.

The following table shows by township the amount of property omitted and what the taxes amount to:

Township	Prop. Omitted	Taxes Added
Bath Tp.	$3,070.00	$387.98
Beaver Creek Tp.	37,370.00	387.98
Cedarville Tp.	575.00	28.39
Jefferson Tp.	19,030.00	945.55
Madison Tp.	2,250.00	104.08
New Jasper Tp.	1,430.00	160.35
Rosa Tp.	35,550.00	1,027.73
Silver Creek Tp.	10,310.00	116.60
Spring Valley Tp.	1,370.00	26.72
Sugar Creek Tp.	1,350.00	156.31
Xenia Tp.	32,195.00	311.49
Xenia City	108,470.00	17,449.01
Total	$218,490.00	$5,854.01

W. D. Cooley Died Suddenly.

W. D. Cooley, well known citizen of this county, who resides in Xenia, died suddenly in a hotel in Centerville, Pa., last Friday, while on a trip for his company. Mr. Cooley was past 58 years of age and leaves a widow, two daughters and a son. Two sisters, Mrs. John Clark, of Columbus, and Mrs. Lou Alden, of Girard, Pa., two half brothers, Rev. Walter Cooley, Dayton, and C. E. Cooley of this place, two half sisters, Mrs. Annette Harbison of this place and Mrs. William Gearhizer, Waldo, O.

Civil service examinations will be held in Xenia, February 14, for applicants for "Fourth-class post offices." Citizens and Xenia are the only offices in this vicinity in that class.

Rev. Walter Morton, wife and son, Paul, of Grayson, Ky., are guests of Mr. S. M. Murdoch and family.

Mr. David Meehling, of Dayton, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Meehling over Christmas.

ATTRACTIONS

A show company, many of stars in the attraction for the Fairbanks Theater, Springfield, on Tuesday evening, January 6th. This remarkable organization is headed by Gertrude Hoffman, who is conceded to be the best dancer on the stage today. She was seen here a few years ago in "The Mimic World" and since that time has danced not only in every important city in America, but in Europe, and critics abroad have called her work real art. Her dances are unlike those used by any other artist, having been designed by the star herself. Another important and recent addition to the company is Ching Foo, the greatest magician in the world. He was with Lillian Russell early in the season, but a few weeks ago joined Miss Hoffman's company. Other artists of equal distinction make up the bill, which is probably the biggest offering of its kind ever produced.

What would you do if you woke up one morning to find that you had been made the guardian of a baby girl? Especially if you happened to be a grouchy bachelor who had never liked children anyway? That is the situation that confronts the hero of "The Bachelor's Baby," which will be seen at the Fairbanks Theater, Wednesday, matinee and evening, January 7th. At first he refused to consider any thing but an orphan asylum for the little one, but her winning ways and sweet little smile made him change his mind and when he found that she could also assist him in his love affairs, his tolerance for the baby quickly changed to love. It is a very pretty story, well acted, with lots of fun and just a little pathos.

Only Sixteen Assessors in Greene County.

There will be 3914 fewer assessors in the state for personal and real estate property under the new Warner taxation measure according to figures given out by the state tax commission. Under the old law there were 5930 assessors now there will be but 1966.

It is plain the new tax assessors are not going to enjoy a vacation at the expense of the state for there will be additional duties not heretofore known. On January 8 an examination will be held for all applicants who will be chosen under civil service rules. The examination will fully determine the fitness of candidates along business lines, his educational qualifications and ability to value both personal and realty.

Under the old law Greene county would have had 31 personal property assessors and 26 quadrennial assessors for really making a total of 57. Under the new law 16 men must do the work of the 57.

Springfield Selects First City Manager.

Springfield is now under the commission form of government and Charles E. Ashburner, the originator of that form of government, has been named city manager. He was born of English parents in India, educated in France and Germany and for many years a civil engineer in this country. He devised the commission form of municipal government and city manager for three years giving what has been said to have been the best government of any city in America. Mr. Ashburner accepts his new position with the understanding that his salary is not to be fixed until he makes good. Dayton has the same form of government and pays Manager Waite $12,500, annually.

COURT NEWS.

In her petition for divorce filed today, Mary Eliza McCoy says that her husband, William McCoy, left her and eloped with another woman whose name she does not know. She says he left her June 14, 1909, and has been willfully absent from here for four years. She asks to be restored to her maiden name, Blow.

The two suits of H. C. Armstrong against Kate Seta and others have been appealed by the defendants from the Court of Mayor Bull of Cedarville, to Common Pleas Court. In the lower court Attorney Armstrong was awarded a judgement of $100 and costs amounting to $8.15, as his costs in a recent case in which he was attorney for the defendants. The defendants refused to pay the costs.

Farmers' Institute A Great Success

The twenty-first annual session of the Cedarville Farmers' Institute was a great success, the attendance being above the average and the program excellent.

The states speakers were John Begg and George Coffey with Miss Inez Plopper at the ladies' session. Mr. W. M. Coffey of the Greene County Improvement Association was also on the program and gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the objects and purposes of that organization.

There was a considerable local talent which was highly appreciated by the audience. John W. Moore gave a splendid account of his trip to Washington with the corn boys. Eugene Fox and Hazel Tomkinson gave excellent readings as did Mrs. Randall of Selma. Mrs. A. J. Coffey read a paper on "Woman in Home" which was practical and instructive. There was an abundance of good music by the College Glee Boys, a piano solo by Miss M. Oglesbee, vocal solo by Miss M. Hastings and a duet by Miss M. Johnson and Dorothy Oglesbee. The question boxes were closed by Mr. C. W. Mott and Mrs. A. Turnbull.

The Thanksgiving session was presided over by Mrs. Harry Townsend, the program and discussions having been given at the home life of those who reside on the farm. These ladies' sessions have been popular in the past and of interest to all.

A resolution offered by Mr. N. L. Ramsey regarding the action of Congressmen in offering a resolution of prohibition was passed.

The nominating committee consisted of the following: C. E. Cooley, Mr. W. C. Coffey, Mr. C. E. Cooley, Mr. E. L. Storck, Mr. G. E. Jobe. The following were chosen: Hugh Tarnum, secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. E. Cooley, executive committee, Mr. H. N. Coe, Miss M. Hastings and Mrs. W. A. Turnbull.

The officers of the ladies' committee are: Mrs. C. E. Cooley, president, Mrs. W. A. Turnbull, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. M. Hastings, executive committee, Mrs. M. Johnson and Dorothy Oglesbee.

ANNUAL OYSTER SUPPER.

The annual oyster supper given by the Olark's Run neighborhood was held at the beautiful and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Conley on Monday evening. Fifty-seven guests were present and enjoyed to the full the bountiful supper.

These annual affairs are looked forward to with pleasure, and certainly tend to more closely unite the neighborhood in the bonds of good fellowship.

SUFFRAGE.

The year 1913 has seen a greater advance in suffrage cause than any previous year.

It has been remarkable in the number of workers which have come into the field and the degree of enthusiasm they have brot with them. Then there has been tangible results. Presidential and municipal suffrage have been granted to the women of Illinois.

Then the first measure introduced into the legislature of Alaska was a suffrage bill. It passed both houses unanimously, and became a law without a vote of the people.

The legislature of Nevada, North and South Dakota and Montana passed suffrage amendments which will be submitted to the people in 1914.

The legislatures of Wisconsin, Michigan, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Iowa all passed suffrage bills but none of them are yet ready for submission to the people.

In some of the legislature suffrage bills passed in one and was defeated in the other house. In some states they were introduced in the other house. In some states they were introduced but left in the hands of the committee. The cause has also made much progress in other lands and has received attention in a number of parliaments.

DISTRICT SCHOOL LIBRARY

The Anderson school of Jasper township closed with an enthusiastic entertainment the patrons generally in attendance. There was a good program, consisting of music and recitations with speeches by superintendent Barnes, W. M. Cook and Hon. S. C. Anderson. But the greatest interest was displayed over an innovation which consisted in the raising of money for the establishment of a library by the sale of refreshments. A goodly sum was realized, which it is expected, will be added to, in the same manner. The school is certainly to be congratulated on its exhibition of patriotism. It is a method which other schools whose efficiency is crippled by their lack, along library lines, would do well to emulate. Much commendation was expressed of the teachers enterprise in inaugurating the movement as well as for the progress in general under his administration.

Miss Mary Hastings entertained her Sabbath School class Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Andrew Cresswell, who is attending seminary in Allegheny is home for the holidays.

Prof. J. Raymond Fitzpatrick of the University of Pennsylvania is home for the holiday vacation.

After January 1 packages weighing not to exceed 60 pounds can be sent Parcel Post within the first two zones. Few farmers have taken advantage of the parcel post and the limit of weight has been raised. This will be a sad blow to the express companies, but let it come.

Stanley Sellers, known to many people here, has resigned his position as manager of the Houston Co., store in South Charleston, to accept a similar one with a London concern.

Miss Gretchen Pitt, of Pleasant Ridge has been the holiday guest of Miss Ellen Tarbox.

Mr. John Stewart returned to Cincinnati Saturday after spending his Christmas vacation at home.

Relatives in this county have received word of the death of Albert Dean, of Kansas City, government cattle inspector for the territory west of the Mississippi river. The deceased was a bachelor and was 77 years of age. Mrs. Joseph Turnbull is a sister and Mr. Andrew H. Dean a brother. Other brothers reside at Topeka, Kan., Calvin of Nebraska and Eli at Waynesville.

Miss Helen Patton, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Patton, who is attending Wesleyan University at Delaware is home for the holidays.

Miss Agnes Stomont, who teaches at Indiana Harbor, is the guest of her parents during the vacation season.

Mr. Ralph Wolford left Tuesday on a trip through the southern states, expecting to be gone six or eight weeks.

Marshal Kennon and the blood hounds were called to Yellow Springs Wednesday as the result of a theft of some chickens. The dogs took up the trail even though the theft had been committed some hours before and traced the stolen property to a house in the village.

The annual Christmas dinner for the Andrew family was held this year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Murdock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nisbet had the pleasure of a New Year's gathering with their sons around the festal board. Those present were: Mr. W. D. Nisbet, Chicago; Mr. Charles Nisbet and family, Loveland; Mr. Ed. Nisbet and wife, Birmingham, Ala.

The holiday vacation of Cedarville College will close January 6th, and the work of the first semester will be resumed at 7 a. m. Tuesday morning, January 6.

Mr. G. H. Smith has been spending several days this week with the Misses Lula and Eleanor Smith, Kent, O.

The Xenia Y. M. C. A. faces a financial crisis and the doors of the institution will be closed January 2. A campaign is being waged to raise funds to meet obligations. The present board will resign and an entire new board will be chosen to manage affairs if sufficient funds are raised. If this is impossible the board will act as trustees of the property until affairs can be placed on a solid footing.

IT WILL JUST TOUCH THE SPOT and prove an every day winner every time. Good health, good cheer and long life is what we promise if you

CLIFTON U. P. CHURCH CHIMES.
Success to The Herald during 1914.
Not the largest, but the best.
If you cannot come to the Sabbath school, the Home Department will bring the Sabbath School to you.
A man may possess the highest possible moral character and still not be a Christian.
Rava Moore will lead the first meeting of the C. U. for the New Year.
The pastor and his family hereby express their appreciation of the many kindnesses shown them of late, and as especially during the Holiday season.
The Church will keep on ringing during 1914, and we hope to see you in the pews in response thereto every Sabbath.
The Christian Union has decided to study an admirable little book entitled "Sketches of the Covenanters," during the next year. Its author is Dr. J. C. McFeeters, of Philadelphia, Pa., a Reformed Presbyterian minister.
New committees in the Christian Union are as follows, viz: Prayer meeting, Paul Ferguson, Carrie Rife, Bruce Anderson and Lester Braloy; Missionary, Wallace Rife, Grace Ritchie, Don Kyle and Alice Finney; Men's meeting, Hattie Turner, Omer Sparrow, Helen Bradburn and Mable Rife; So called David Bradford, Rava Moore, Fay Fluke, Margaret Rife, Casper Finney and William Collins.
The families of Dr. Foeter and Dr. Ritchie were entertained for New Year's dinner at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Anderson.
Miss Margaret Rife has the hearty thanks of the congregation for the splendid moral program, given by the young people under her training, on Christmas Eve.
Almost 300 people attended the service on Christmas Eve; the social following the program was a very pleasant feature of the occasion.
Prof. Leigh Alexander, of Oberlin College, spent the holidays with friends in Clifton.
The pastor and wife and Kenneth were guests, Christmas day, of Mr. and Mrs. John Finney, where a sumptuous dinner was served and a pleasant day of fellowship enjoyed.
It would be impossible to report all the fine family reunions on Christmas day. This is one of the joys of being in a Christian land.
Burton Bradley has the following good advice for young men:
So live, my son, that when you start a fight of any kind
Your enemies can never find
A crooked action on your part.
So live that they may freely roam
Into your past, and snoot about,
And comb it with a fine tooth comb,
And never dig a blame-thing out.
That's mean or fraudulent or vile,
Though every man is sure to make
Many an error and mistake,
If you have lived upon the square,
You still can make your fight and smile.
And never worry, fret nor care
How much your foes may try to cast
The calcium glare upon your face.
But if you haven't played the game
Your foes will find your hidden shame.
And you will get the bitter blame,
And set it on your forehead.
And though your fight be just and right—
Good night!
And so it's simple business sense,
Say it's simple business sense,
To keep your record clean!
May this year bring to you three hundred and sixty-five days of joy!
We are wondering how many will have a perfect record in the Sabbath School attendance for 1914. Watch the secretary's report, next Sabbath.
A Scotch minister invented the reaper about 1820 and died in poverty, as did an American minister, who invented the typewriter. The inventions of poor starving ministers make up the most tragic and thrilling chapter in the history of mechanical devices. As in the spiritual world so in the material world—one sows and another reaps.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O. Thompson have purchased the Esterline farm, on the Jackson road, and moved into our bounds. Call on them and make them welcome in our church circles.
Historical Sermons.
Jan. 1—Origin and Testimony of Our Church.
Jan. 11—Current Misapprehensions of Calvinism.
Jan. 18—The Psalmist Historically Considered.
Jan. 25—An Ancient Protestant.
Mrs. Nellie I. Gregg and son, William Carey, of Philadelphia, are visitors at the parsonage during the holidays.
Miss Carrie Purdy, of New Concord, is the guest of Miss Grace Ritchie during the New Year holidays. They were classmates at Muskingum College.
The regular annual congregational meeting will be held at the church, Wednesday, January 7, at 1:30.
Dues for the Misses Martin and Hammond Fund should be paid to Miss Maggie Finney, treasurer.
All who have been present at Sabbath School every day during 1913, are requested to report to the superintendent this fact.
Please read the pastor's New Year's letter carefully and preserve for future reference.
Remember Colonel Bain's lecture next Thursday evening. Everybody ought to hear him.
A Complete Surprise.
Last Tuesday evening at the close of the Christmas program a complete surprise was perpetrated on Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Ritchie by the congregation. Mr. Gordon Collins, in a very neat, forcible, witty, "cut and dried speech" presented the astonished pastor and wife with a purse containing One Hundred Dollars in gold. How all the congregation melted in such a magnanimous and complimentary undertaking and carried it to such a successful finish without raising any suspicion is hard to explain, but they certainly did. The many kindnesses of the past to which this very gracious gift has been added draw the people and pastor very close together and do certainly make it a pleasure to work together. May the larger blessings of heaven be showered in rich abundance upon those who are constantly so thoughtful of their pastor and his family.
C. M. Ritchie,
Jennie F. Ritchie.
OYSTERS! OYSTERS! Leave your order for nice, fresh ones received each Tuesday and Saturday. C. M. Spencer.
